Class Description: This class has proven that they are able to play more advanced music than Beginning Band and has as its goal to finish the method book by the end of this semester. Significant daily practice time will be expected to ensure this goal is met. New students may enter this class only if they can show that they are on level with the rest of the class. There will be a free performance for the public at the end of each semester.

New students, see Mr. Murray for an interview and audition.
