Class Description: This course is designed for the student who fits into either of these three categories:

- 1) The student is behind the level of the current Beginning Band. This might include a student who is starting during a school year when that class is already playing and have learned to read music.
- 2) The student who is attempting to function in Beginning Band but cannot keep up or is falling behind.
- 3) The student who is advancing at a quicker pace than Beginning Band and needs a greater challenge. The goal will be to custom design a line a study that will get them ready to join and perform with Concert Band.

This class will be capped at 12 students. The teacher will custom design their playing assignments to match their level or performance and help them learn with the goal of returning to Beginning Band class or to the Concert Band class.
