Class Description:

This class is designed to examine and discuss the theology/philosophy of numbers and symbols in the Bible from creation, the life of Jesus, Revelation, to eternity, and everything in between. God has shown his majesty and perfection through numbers and symbolism all throughout history and into the modern age. In fact, many mathematicians find belief in God through completing their degrees because they come to recognize the sheer fact that math and logical thinking in of itself is too perfect to not have a creator. We will start at 0 and work our way up each number, ending with infinity. This is not only a mathematics course or Bible study, since there are related symbolism and concepts for each number that we will examine in turn.

As always, feel free to text/call/email with any questions, comments or concerns.
